

2024 Doctors' Day: Thank you

Dr. Krishna
Nallamshetty

March 30 is National Doctor's Day, and we are honoring all physicians for their dedication to patients and their families.

I'm especially filled with gratitude and appreciation for the radiologists at RP. Thank you for your service to our patients, practice and client partners.

As CMO, I have the unique opportunity to witness the positive impact that our radiologists make in our local practices, in our specialty and in the broader healthcare industry. Radiology is integral to the continuum of care, and your commitment to providing high-quality imaging services ensures better care for patients and service for our partners.

I am inspired by your dedication to our mission to transform radiology.

Thank you for your commitment and for practicing at RP!
